ABOUT DINAH

Rev. Dinah Chapman moved to California in August 2000 to work in Silicon Valley. While working in Information Technology for over 20 years, she pursued her music ministry, singing and speaking in several Bay Area Unity churches. Inspired and taught by her parents, as a PK (preacher's kid) she grew up singing gospel music in the church in Illinois, performing lead vocals for church choirs and directing choirs. Later after graduating from college, she began songwriting. She released her first CD of original music in 2005 and released her second CD, "Rivers of Living Waters," in 2011.

Finding a love for teaching spiritual principles, she became a Licensed Unity Teacher in 2012. Answering the call to full-time ministry, Rev. Dinah entered Unity Institute and Seminary at Unity Village, Missouri in 2013, where she received her Masters of Divinity and became an ordained Unity minister in June 2016. She has served as Associate Minister at Unity of San Leandro (CA) for two years and senior minister of Unity of Tri-Valley from 2018 to 2019. She is passionate about inclusivity, empowering and inspiring others to live abundant, joyful, meaningful lives that make a difference, and creating a world that works for all.

Rev. Dinah currently resides in the Bay Area in Northern California and is building an alternative ministry online, Unity Joy Abundantly Expressing Ministries (UnityJoy.org) that will focus on...you guessed it...JOY!
